

NetNumber Receives CV Magazine's 2016 Technology Innovator Award for Most Innovative Signal Control Platform

LOWELL, Mass. — Sept. 14, 2016 —NetNumber is the recipient of a 2016 Technology Innovators Award for Most Innovative Signal Control Platform from Corporate Vision Magazine. NetNumber is recognized for transforming how operators deliver new services to their customers while significantly simplifying the network core and reducing operating costs with its TITAN platform. This award caps a number of honors garnered by NetNumber this year, including “Most Innovative Network Infrastructure Solutions Company—USA,” “One to Watch,” and finalist for the prestigious “Best Mobile Infrastructure” Global Mobile (Glomo) award at GSMA Mobile World Congress 2016.

According to the magazine, as the corporate world continues to evolve, the importance of technology and its role in the evolution of the business market cannot be overstated. These awards recognize the individuals, departments and firms behind the ground-breaking developments that change the way we do business for the better. NetNumber TITAN, the industry's most robust centralized signaling and routing (CSRC) platform, provides a common, virtualized infrastructure for all signaling control, routing policy enforcement and subscriber database services in the network. It uniquely delivers centralized provisioning and management combined with a powerful distributed, in-memory database replication method that enables all signal processing to happen at the optimal location in an operator's network. Today, TITAN is deployed on more than 350 servers on five continents, and supports more than 200 billion transactions per month.

“The telecom industry has been undergoing a tremendous transformation, and technology has been a key enabler,” said Kim Gibbons, NetNumber chief marketing officer. “Operators are looking for innovative solutions that enable new services for their existing customers while also facilitating expansion into vertical markets. Most operators have recognized the value of implementing software-based solutions to transform all aspects of their business. NetNumber is honored to be recognized by Corporate Vision Magazine for our focus and impact on the telecom industry.”

Laura Hunter, Awards Coordinator, commented, “This awards program turns the spotlight on the very best that the technology sector has to offer. It is a true honor to be able to reward the hard work and dedication of all of our deserving winners.”
